ANNUAL OUTING OF THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC EMPLOYEES

The second annual outing of the local employees of the Southern Pacific railroad was held yesterday at Lagoon and was a well organized and much enjoyed affair. Virtually all of the offices of the railroad were closed for the day and the officials and clerks, with their families and friends, went to the Bamberger resort on an early train. Late in the afternoon and early in the evening, they were joined by a number of the shopmen, members of whose families were in the first party.

For an hour, immediately following arrival at Lagoon, the excursionists enjoyed the pleasure of getting personally acquainted with each other, and this excellent idea of the committee was responsible for the fine social spirit that prevailed at the big family luncheon in the bower. This family remained present through the remainder of the day and evening and was responsible for the general good time that was had.

Following the luncheon, a program of field sports and novelty contests was staged, with Chief Clerk W. O. Johnson, of the Salt Lake division of the Southern Pacific, and W. T. Fulk, as judges. The events, winners and records, in this part of the day's entertainment, are as follows:

Fifty-yard dash—W. J. Fagan; time six seconds.

Broad jump—Ed Painter; eight feet four inches.

Running broad jump—Edw. C. Le Masters; fifteen feet four inches.

Ninety-yard dash—W. J. Fagan; nine and one-half seconds.

Twenty-five yard backward race—G. A. Checketts; seven seconds.

High jump—Ed Painter; four feet nine inches.

Small boys' twenty-five yard race—Lecile Crouch.

Smile girls' race—Ruth Morris.

Ladies' ball throwing contest—Mrs. R. F. Hewes, eighty-eight feet; Mrs. E. L. Morris, eighty-seven feet nine inches.

Hop skip and jump—J. D. Cox.

Baseball Game.

A baseball game, programmed as the feature of the day, was next staged, the contesting teams being made up of players from the shops and offices. The shopmen won the contest by the score of 8 to 6, and the line-up was as follows:

Shops—Wooley, catcher; Stewart, pitcher; Allison, firstbase; Mann secondbase; Cox, thirdbase; Marshall, shortstop; Owens, leftfield; Lake, centerfield; E. Stewart, rightfield.

Offices—Painter, catcher; Checketts, pitcher; Fagan, firstbase; Payne, secondbase; LeMasters, thirdbase; Lee, shortstop; Brophy, leftfield; Williams, centerfield; Parkinson, rightfield.

The game proved fine entertainment and the only complaint, aside from those of lame arms and legs, heard today, was from Parkinson, who was struck in the ribs with a pitched ball and put hors du combat for a few minutes.

The contest concluded the scheduled program of sports and the crowd was turned loose to enjoy the entertainment offered by the different concessionaires at the resort, which was done until the twilight hour, when a picnic dinner was set by the mothers of the party, in the bower. This was partaken of with healthy zest, and when it was concluded, the tired members of the crowd returned to the city. The others remained for the evening dancing.

The committee in charge of the outing was composed of R. F. Hewes, C. A. Hensley, G. A. Checketts, William Fagan, Leslie J. Mann and H. W. Hawley, Jr.

CHAS. E. HUGHES TO BE GREETED BY LOCAL COMMITTEE OF 300

Tomorrow will be a gala day in the history of Ogden, when Hon. Charles E. Hughes, ex-governor of New York, ex-justice of the United States supreme court, leader and presidential nominee of the Republican party, visits in the city for several hours. In recognition of his past prominence as a jurist and man of public affairs and the present eminent position he holds as head of a great political party, it is anticipated that local members of all political faiths will lay aside their differences for the day and give Mr. Hughes a genuine "Ogden" welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and party of 28, including 25 newspaper and magazine correspondents, left California early today for Utah, traveling over the Southern Pacific in special cars. They were due to reach Reno, Nev., at 8:30 o'clock this morning and to depart for Ogden at 9:05 o'clock tonight. The Republican leader was to make two speeches in Reno, one at an afternoon and one at an evening meeting. He is scheduled to reach Ogden on the second section of Southern Pacific train No. 20, the Pacific Limited, shortly after 1 p. m. tomorrow and to remain here until 4 o'clock.

Elaborate plans have been made to officially welcome Mr. Hughes to Utah, Ogden and Salt Lake. A special committee, headed by Glen Miller, chairman of the Republican Central committee of Utah, and including Governor William Spry and members of the central committee, will come to Ogden in the morning on an early Oregon Short Line train. They will be joined at the union depot by F. J. Hendershot, who has been named to head the Ogden reception committee. Mayor A. R. Heywood, Samuel G. Dye and C. R. Hollingsworth of the state central committee. The combined party will then go to Lakeside, across the Ogden-Lucan cutoff on Southern Pacific train No. 19, in a special car and will there welcome Mr. Hughes and party to Utah.

A committee of 300 prominent Ogden and Weber county Republicans will meet the presidential candidate's train upon its arrival at the local union terminal.

A suite of rooms at the Reed hotel has been retained for Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and plans have been made to entertain them with an automobile ride around the city and through Ogden canyon. They will be given the privilege of accepting one or both to occupy the time until 2 o'clock, the time set for the public gathering at the Alhambra theatre, to greet Mr. Hughes.

The other members of the party will be guests of the Weber club during their stay in the city and arrangements have been made to receive and entertain them at the club rooms in the Colonel Hudson building.

Mr. Hughes is scheduled to deliver an address at the meeting in the Alhambra theatre and will depart, with his party and the state reception committee for Salt Lake City, at 4 p. m. on an Oregon Short Line train. He is due to return to Ogden over the same railroad, reaching here about 1 a. m. tomorrow and will depart for Wyoming on a special Union Pacific train a few minutes later.

According to dispatches from California, Mr. Hughes delivered approximately 30 speeches in that state, one half of them yesterday. Last night, he showed the strain of the unusual effort in his voice and was tired out on leaving Sacramento. He will have his first rest of the campaign next week when he goes to Estes Park, Colo., 156 miles from Denver, for a four-day stay. After his Ogden and Salt Lake meetings, he will deliver addresses at Cheyenne, Wyo., Friday night and Denver, Saturday night, before winning his rest.

Mr. Hughes protested vigorously at the strenuous program arranged for his last day in California, and was assured that he would not be called upon to make so many rear platform speeches during the remainder of his trip. At Sacramento, his voice showed the strain more than at any time since he left New York.

Reception Committee.

JACK CURLEY, FAMOUS SPORT WRITER, COMES TO OGDEN BY AUTOMOBILE

Jess Willard, world's champion, who appears in Ogden next Monday. Willard is the feature attraction with the Sells-Floto Circus. This picture was taken last week at Butte, Montana, and shows off Willard's size. Jack Curley weighs 238 pounds and is over 6 feet in height. Alongside of Willard he looks like a pigmy.

Jack Curley, the sport promoter, and Frank Cruehshank, general press representative, arrived in Ogden this afternoon. Both are connected with the Sells-Floto circus. They came a motor in a King eight with the gears sealed in high. The auto world is especially interested in the feat because this is the first time such a thing has been tried out. They report that the roads are splendid and are experiencing no trouble. This is the first time that a circus has sent its advance men in a motor car.

Curley, known far and wide as the "sporting encyclopedia," is in the city. He rejoices in the reputation of being one of the world's greatest promoters of big events and with a brain crammed full of wider knowledge of sport than any other man in the business.

Jack comes here as an advance courier for the Sells-Floto circus, the most interesting portion of which as far as the sporting page is concerned, being the presence with that famous organization of Jess Willard, world's champion boxer, supported by the greatest aggregation of athletes that money could assemble.

Few topplers in the boxing game have not at one time or another fought under Curley's management. He has personally handled such men as Benny Yang, Frankie Noel, Harry Forbes, Dave Barry, "Syracuse" Ryan, the Sullivan Twins, Jimmy and George Gardner, Marvin Hart, John Willie, Jim Flynn, the Pueblo war horse, whom he still has, and with Tom Jones is a partner in the management of Jess Willard, world's champion.

Minority of Union Delegation Demands Immediate Action

The railroad representatives prolonged discussion of President Wilson's plan, gave free expression to their opinions at today's meeting.

The men felt that the railroads show a disposition to disregard their sacrifice of their demand for time and a half for overtime. The four brotherhood leaders decided not to issue a statement, expected for publication this morning until later in the day.

Presidents Estimate Cost.

The three presidents who were at the White House last night, left with President Wilson a comprehensive statement of the estimated cost of extending an eight-hour day to all railroad employees and employees in industrial concerns throughout the country, with the request that the president examine them carefully.

The railroad presidents take the position that the extension of the eight-hour day to railway trainmen eventually means that it must be extended to all other railroad workers and many of those in industrial pursuits.

Before the meeting of all the executives with the committee of eight today, it seemed apparent that there would be some difficulty in getting all the presidents to agree to any concrete proposals which involve an eight-hour day with ten hours' pay.

So far as the bankers interested in the roads are concerned, one president of a big eastern road said today that instead of urging the presidents to accede to the White House demands, bankers were for the most part under their influence to support the executives in their insistence upon arbitration.

BRUTAL ATTACK ON AN OLD MAN MADE BY F. E. BARON

Attempting to protect a little girl from insults and probable injury by F. E. Baron, aged 26 years, last night, Mr. Horspool, aged 71 years, was brutally assaulted by the younger man, who was later captured by the police.

The assault occurred about 9:30 o'clock, on Lincoln avenue, near Twenty-fifth street. Mr. Horspool was taking Florence James, aged 10, and Myron Russell, aged 9, to their homes on Lincoln avenue. As they were passing a dark place on the street, a man, who had followed them, said: "Come here, little girl, I want to speak to you." To this, the child's escort replied:

"Go away and let the girl alone or I will call the police."

Almost as the answer was spoken, the aged man was struck down by a blunt instrument wielded by Baron. Passersby, who saw the attack, immediately rushed to the rescue. Several attended to the injured man while others started in pursuit of his assailant who had dashed south on the avenue.

Mr. Horspool was taken to the police station, where his wound was dressed by acting City Physician Dr. H. W. Nelson. In the meantime, Baron and his pursuers dashed down Twenty-fifth street from Lincoln avenue and the chase was witnessed by Chief of Police T. E. Browning and Patrolman William Brown.
